

Reddaway Chosen 2019 Regional LTL Carrier of the Year by Transplace

October 2, 2019

TUALATIN, Ore., Oct. 02, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- (NASDAQ: YRCW) -- Reddaway, an industry-leading less-than-truckload (LTL) service provider in the Western United States and Canada, has been selected by Transplace as one of its two 2019 Regional LTL Carriers of the Year. The award identifies Transplace carriers that have gone above and beyond the call of duty by providing the highest levels of service, embracing technology for improved visibility, and establishing quality relationships. Specific areas of emphasis in the selection process included: on-time service, tender acceptance, claims, SmartWay score, ease of doing business factors such as customer service, responsiveness, accuracy and timeliness of invoicing and status updates.

"We are grateful to Transplace for selecting Reddaway as one of its 2019 Regional LTL Carriers of the Year. Transplace asks for best-in-class service for its customers and Team Reddaway delivers," said Bob Stone, President of Reddaway. "Our service commitment to excellence is only possible by the hard work and dedication of Team Reddaway. We recognize and thank each member of Team Reddaway for doing what it takes to Make Next-Day Happen."

Beyond the important service metrics considered in selecting its winners, Transplace values the strong, collaborative relationship demonstrated by Reddaway.

Other awards earned by Reddaway this year include:

- 2018 Western Regional LTL Carrier Partner of the Year from Unishipper's Global Logistics
