

Holland Awarded 2019 Regional LTL Carrier of the Year by Transplace

October 2, 2019

HOLLAND, Mich., Oct. 02, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- (NASDAQ: YRCW) -- Holland, the industry leader in Central and Southeastern Next-Day delivery, has been selected by Transplace as one of its two 2019 Regional LTL Carriers of the Year. The award identifies Transplace carriers that have gone above and beyond the call of duty by providing the highest levels of service, embracing technology for improved visibility, and establishing quality relationships. Specific areas of emphasis in the selection process included: on-time service, tender acceptance, claims, SmartWay score, ease of doing business factors such as customer service, responsiveness, accuracy and timeliness of invoicing and status updates.

"We thank Transplace for choosing Holland as one of its 2019 Regional LTL Carriers of the Year. Transplace asks for best-in-class service for its customers and Holland delivers," said Scott Ware, Holland President and YRCW Chief Network Officer. "Customer satisfaction is only possible when every member of our team comes together to make Next-Day happen. The many hardworking men and women of Holland take pride in delivering the best in service and quality for Transplace and its customers."

Holland was previously awarded 2016 Regional LTL Carrier of the Year by Transplace. Beyond the important service metrics considered in selecting its winners, Transplace also values the strong, collaborative relationship demonstrated by Holland.
