

Yellow Corporation Recognizes Its 2022 Million Mile Drivers

February 22, 2023

Overall, 298 Yellow professional drivers achieved one million miles or more of safe driving last year.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 22, 2023 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Yellow Corporation (NASDAQ: YELL) is proud to congratulate its professional drivers who, in 2022, achieved the milestone of driving more than one million miles without a single preventable accident.

In 2022, four Yellow drivers reached the four million mile safe-driving milestone, while 32 drivers surpassed three million miles. Overall, 298 Yellow drivers achieved a status of one million miles or more of safe driving, as of last year.

To put into perspective what is required to drive one million miles without a preventable accident – it typically takes a decade of professional truck driving experience and is equal to making two trips to the Moon and back.

"This is just a tremendous accomplishment and we are so proud of all our drivers who reached a million mile status last year," said Tamara Jalving, Yellow Vice President of Safety and Talent Acquisition. "Our Million Mile drivers are part of an elite and exclusive club. They embody our safety vision and truly act as safety leaders where they work and live."
