

YRC Worldwide Ranks Number One in its Industry for the Fifth Consecutive Year on the FORTUNE Magazine Annual List of America's Most Admired Companies

OVERLAND PARK, Kan., March 9 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- For the fifth consecutive year YRC Worldwide (Nasdaq: YRCW), one of the largest transportation service providers in the world, has been ranked Number One in its industry on the FORTUNE Magazine annual list of America's Most Admired Companies. In addition, YRC Worldwide ranked number one in all eight categories, an exceptional recognition achieved by only 11 other companies. The reputation attributes are: Innovation, Employee talent, Use of corporate assets, Social responsibility, Quality of management, Financial soundness, Long-term investment, and Quality of products/services.

YRC Worldwide joins other most admired corporate leaders in this year's annual survey, including General Electric, Starbucks, Exxon Mobil, Procter & Gamble and Continental Airlines each with top rankings in their respective industries.

"It's an honor to once again be recognized alongside some of the nation's most prestigious companies," said Bill Zollars, chairman, president and CEO, YRC Worldwide. "We are especially proud to have ranked number one in all eight attributes of reputation categories, an outstanding achievement that validates the commitment by our employees to finding the right transportation and logistics solutions to solve the challenges our customers face in today's global marketplace."

FORTUNE's annual list of America's Most Admired Companies will appear in the March 19, 2007 issue, on newsstands March 12th. To create the 63 industry lists, FORTUNE and its survey partner, Hay Group, asked executives, directors, and analysts to rate companies in their own industry on eight criteria, from investment value to social responsibility. A total of 616 companies in 68 industries were surveyed.
