

Roadway Sends Another Prestigious Group to National Truck Driving Championships

AKRON, Ohio, July 31 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Roadway proudly announced that 27 of its best and safest professional drivers will compete at the 69th National Truck Driving Championships August 15-19, 2006 at the Ernest N. Morial Convention Center in New Orleans, LA. The American Trucking Association sponsors the event.

"We are proud of the 27 state champion drivers that have demonstrated their dedication to safety, professionalism and driving skill not only in competition, but every day in their professional lives," said Mike Smid, President and CEO of Roadway. "I'm looking forward to watching these leaders of our industry compete in New Orleans and wish them the best in their quest for the national championship."

To compete, each driver achieved first-place honors in state-level truck driving championships. The competitions include challenging driving skills, maneuvering tests, pre-trip inspections and a written examination covering vehicle operation and federal safety regulations. The Roadway state champions represent the best of the best, including 19 previous winners and three Grand Champions.
