No Changes. (Former name or former address, if changed since last report.) On September 29, 1994, Yellow Corporation (the company) announced that it will record a charge to earnings in the third quarter of $6.7 million, $4.1 million after taxes, or $.14 per share. This charge, recorded as an extraordinary item, is to write-off the book value of its intrastate operating rights. The non-cash charge resulted from the recent passage of the Trucking Industry Regulatory Reform Act of 1994 which deregulates the entry and rates for the intrastate operations of all transportation companies.

The company expects to announce third quarter results on October 20, 1994.
