Item 5. Other Events

On January 17, 1996, Yellow Corporation (the company) reported that President and CEO, George E. Powell III, announced his intention to resign. Powell, 47, who was named to his current position in 1992, agreed to remain until a replacement candidate is selected. That selection is expected in the next few months. Powell will also continue his current board term and stand for reelection when that term expires in April concurrent with the Annual Shareholders meeting.

Powell, who for twenty-five years has held numerous management and executive positions at Yellow Freight System, Inc. culminating with the top post at the holding company, will be involved in identifying his successor. His father, George E. Powell, Jr. will remain as Chairman of the Board of Directors.
