Million Mile Accident-Free Drivers Honored During National Truck Driver Appreciation Week

OVERLAND PARK, Kan., Sept. 21, 2012 /PRNewswire/ -- YRC Freight, a subsidiary of YRC Worldwide Inc. (NASDAQ: YRCW), announced today nine inductees into the 2012 Driver Hall of Fame as part of National Truck Driver Appreciation Week.

YRC Freight honors the following professional drivers who have collectively driven over 25 million accident-free miles:

- Donald Cook — Linehaul Driver, Allentown, PA
- Jerry Cudmore — Retired City Driver, Sioux Falls, SD
- David McDonald — Retired Road Driver, Kansas City, KS
- Thomas Nestler — Driver, Montgomery, IL
- Donald Robinson — Road Driver, Akron, OH
- Bob Seeman — Road Driver, Valdosta, GA
- Richard Shreiner — Road Driver, Harrisburg, PA
- Ray Simon — Retired City Driver, St. Cloud, MN
- Alfred Weddle — Road Driver, Albuquerque, NM

"We salute these outstanding YRC Freight drivers for the tremendous feat they have accomplished and thank them for their continued commitment to providing unparalleled service to our customers," said Jeff Rogers, president of YRC Freight. "These exceptional individuals help YRC Freight to remain one of the safest transportation providers in the industry."

National Truck Driver Appreciation Week honors the 3.1 million professional truck drivers nationwide who log close to 398 billion miles each year and in 2011 delivered 67 percent of the U.S. freight tonnage--or over 9.2 billion tons of freight.
