Saint Louis Driver C.D. Bates Reaches Four Million Accident Free Miles

OVERLAND PARK, Kan., May 23, 2014 - YRC Worldwide Inc. (NASDAQ: YRCW) announced that road driver C.D. Bates recently surpassed a milestone of driving four million consecutive miles without an accident. C.D. Bates has been a professional driver with YRC Freight for 40 years and drives out of the company's Saint Louis, Missouri distribution center.

"C.D. Bates is a champion of safety. Driving four million miles without a preventable accident is an outstanding achievement and all of us on the YRC Freight team offer C.D. our congratulations," stated YRC Freight President Darren Hawkins. "There are approximately four million miles of roads in the United States and C.D. Bates has accomplished the equivalent of driving every single mile of those roads without an accident. Not only is C.D. Bates a champion of safety he is also a champion of service by ensuring our customers' shipments arrive safely and on time," Hawkins said.

Nationwide, YRC Freight has a proud heritage of safety with 1,742 one million, 489 two million, 76 three million, 16 four million and 1 five million, consecutive, accident-free mile drivers.
