

Yellow to Issue $130 Million Contingent Convertible Senior Notes

-- Proceeds used to finance pending Roadway acquisition

-- Notes mature in 2023 and are convertible to Yellow stock upon the occurrence of certain events

OVERLAND PARK, Kan., Nov. 19 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Yellow Corporation (Nasdaq: YELL) (Yellow) announced today that it is seeking to raise, subject to market and other conditions, approximately $130 million through a private offering of contingent convertible senior notes (the "notes"). An additional $20 million may be raised if the initial purchasers exercise their right to acquire additional notes in connection with the offering.

The notes will be convertible into shares of Yellow common stock upon the occurrence of certain events and will mature in 2023. Yellow expects to use the net proceeds from the offering as part of the financing for the pending acquisition of Roadway Corporation (Nasdaq: ROAD) and, if such acquisition is not completed, for general corporate purposes.

This notice does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy securities. The notes and our common stock issuable upon conversion of the notes have not been registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction. Unless they are registered, the notes and our common stock issuable upon their conversion may be offered or sold only in transactions that are exempt from registration under the Securities Act and other applicable securities laws. Accordingly, Yellow is offering the notes only to qualified institutional buyers in reliance on Rule 144A under the Securities Act.
