COMPANY NOTICE TO HOLDERS OF
5% NET SHARE SETTLED CONTINGENT CONVERTIBLE SENIOR NOTES DUE 2023
ISSUED BY YRC WORLDWIDE INC.

CUSIP Number: 985577 AA3

Reference is made to the Indenture, dated as of December 31, 2004, among YRC Worldwide Inc., a Delaware corporation (formerly known as Yellow Roadway Corporation) (“YRC” or the “Company”), certain subsidiary guarantors named therein and Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas, as trustee (the “Trustee”), as amended by a Supplemental Indenture, dated as of December 31, 2009 (as amended, the “Indenture”), relating to the Company’s 5% Net Share Settled Contingent Convertible Senior Notes due 2023 (the “Notes”). Pursuant to Section 3.08 of the Indenture and paragraph 6 of the Notes, each holder (each, a “Holder”) of the Notes has an option to require the Company to purchase all or a portion of its Notes, in accordance with the terms, procedures and conditions outlined in the Indenture and the Notes, on August 8, 2010 (the “Purchase Date”). Under the Indenture, August 8, 2010 is considered a Legal Holiday as it is a Sunday and thus not a Business Day. As a result, the Purchase Date will be August 9, 2010 as the next succeeding day that is not a Legal Holiday in accordance with Section 12.08 of the Indenture.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Indenture that, at the option of each Holder (the “Put Option”), the Notes will be purchased by the Company for a purchase price (the “Purchase Price”) in cash equal to $1,000 per $1,000 principal amount of the Notes, plus any accrued and unpaid interest to, but not including, the Purchase Date, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Indenture, the Notes, this Company Notice and the related notice materials, as amended and supplemented from time to time (collectively, the “Option Documents”). Holders may surrender their Notes from July 9, 2010 through 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on August 6, 2010 (the “Expiration Date”). In order to exercise the Put Option, a Holder must follow the procedures contained in the Option Documents. This Company Notice is being sent pursuant to Section 3.08 of the Indenture and the provisions of the Notes. All capitalized terms used but not specifically defined herein shall have the meanings given to such terms in the Indenture.

The Purchase Date is an Interest Payment Date under the terms of the Indenture. Accordingly, interest accrued up to the Purchase Date will be paid to record holders as of the Record Date therefor, and we expect that there will be no accrued and unpaid interest due as part of the Purchase Price. The Record Date for the Purchase Date is July 15, 2010.

The Trustee has informed the Company that, as of the date of this Company Notice, all custodians and beneficial holders of the Notes hold the Notes through The Depository Trust Company (“DTC”) accounts and that there are no certificated Notes in non-global form. Accordingly, all Notes surrendered for purchase hereunder must be delivered through the transmittal procedures of DTC’s Automated Tender Offer Program, subject to the terms and conditions of that system.

To exercise your option to have the Company purchase the Notes and to receive payment of the Purchase Price, you must validly deliver your Notes through DTC’s transmittal procedures prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date. Notes surrendered for purchase may be withdrawn by the Holders of such Notes at any time prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date. The right of Holders to surrender Notes for purchase pursuant to the Put Option expires at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date.

On January 28, 2010, the Company filed a petition for declaratory judgment against the Trustee seeking a declaratory judgment that the Indenture should be amended to eliminate the Put Option as a result of the consents it received in connection with its debt-for-equity exchange offers that were completed on December 31, 2009 (the “Put Option Litigation”). All of the statements made in this Company Notice relating to the Company’s obligation to purchase the Notes pursuant to the Put Option are expressly conditioned upon and subject to the outcome of the Put Option Litigation. In addition, nothing in this Company Notice shall be construed as an admission or acknowledgment on the part of the Company with respect to this obligation or in anyway be interpreted or used in any manner prejudicial to the Company in the pending Put Option Litigation. On July 1, 2010, the district court ruled in favor of the Trustee with respect to its motion for summary judgment and determined that the Company could not eliminate the Put Option without the consent of each Holder affected. The Company is currently evaluating its options and may elect to appeal this ruling. If the Company does decide to appeal the ruling, it will likely seek an order from the court permitting the Company to delay the Purchase Date pending the appeal by the Company. See “Information Concerning the Notes — Pending Litigation Regarding the Put Option.”

Schedule A Information About the Executive Officers and Directors of the Company	A-1

No person has been authorized to give any information or to make any representations other than those contained in this Company Notice and, if given or made, such information or representations must not be relied upon as having been authorized. This Company Notice does not constitute an offer to buy or the solicitation of an offer to sell securities in any circumstances or jurisdiction in which such offer or solicitation is unlawful. The delivery of this Company Notice shall not, under any circumstances, create any implication that the information contained herein is current as of any time subsequent to the date of such information. None of the Company, its Board of Directors or its employees is making any representation or recommendation to any Holder as to whether to exercise or refrain from exercising the Put Option. You should consult your own financial and tax advisors and must make your own decision as to whether to exercise the Put Option and, if so, the amount of Notes for which to exercise the Put Option.

We and our affiliates, including our executive officers and directors, will be prohibited by Rule 13e-4(f)(6) and Rule 14e-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), from purchasing any of the Notes outside of the Put Option for ten business days after the expiration of the Put Option. Following that time, we expressly reserve the absolute right, in our sole discretion from time to time in the future to redeem the Notes, in whole or in part, and to purchase any of the Notes, whether or not any Notes are purchased by the Company pursuant to the Put Option, through open market purchases, privately negotiated transactions, tender offers, exchange offers or otherwise, upon such terms and at such prices as we may determine, which may be more or less than the price to be paid pursuant to the Put Option and could be for cash or other consideration. We cannot assure you as to which, if any, of these alternatives, or a combination thereof, we will pursue.

SUMMARY TERM SHEET

The following are answers to some of the questions that you may have about the Put Option. To understand the Put Option fully and for a more detailed description of the terms of the Put Option, we urge you to read carefully the remainder of this Company Notice because the information in this summary is not complete and the remainder of this Company Notice contains additional important information. We have included page references to direct you to a more detailed description of the topics in this summary.

Who is obligated to purchase my Notes?

YRC Worldwide Inc., a Delaware corporation (formerly known as Yellow Roadway Corporation) (“YRC,” the “Company,” “we” or “our”), is obligated, at your option, to purchase its 5% Net Share Settled Contingent Convertible Senior Notes due 2023 (the “Notes”). (See Page 5)

Why are you obligated to purchase my Notes?

The right of each holder (each, a “Holder”) of the Notes to sell and our obligation to purchase the Notes pursuant to the Put Option is a term of the Notes under the Indenture, dated as of December 31, 2004, among the Company, certain subsidiary guarantors named therein and Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas, as trustee (the “Trustee”), as amended by a Supplemental Indenture, dated as of December 31, 2009 (as amended, the “Indenture”), and has been a right of Holders from the time the Notes were issued. We are required to repurchase the Notes of any Holder exercising the Put Option pursuant to the terms of the Notes and the Indenture. (See Page 5)

How may the Put Option Litigation affect your obligation to purchase my Notes?

On July 1, 2010, the district court ruled in favor of the Trustee with respect to its motion for summary judgment and determined that the Company could not eliminate the Put Option without the consent of each Holder affected. The Company is currently evaluating its options and may elect to appeal this ruling. If the Company does decide to appeal the ruling, it will likely seek an order from the court permitting the Company to delay the Purchase Date pending the appeal by the Company. In light of the foregoing, it is impossible to predict the exact effect, if any, the Put Option Litigation will have on our obligation to purchase your Notes. (See Pages 5-6)

What securities are you obligated to purchase?

We are obligated to purchase all of the Notes surrendered at the option of the Holder thereof. As of July 1, 2010, there was $20,070,000 in aggregate principal amount of the Notes outstanding. (See Page 5)

How much will you pay and what is the form of payment?

Pursuant to the terms of the Indenture and the Notes, we will pay, in cash, a purchase price (the “Purchase Price”) equal to $1,000 per $1,000 principal amount of the Notes, plus any accrued and unpaid interest to, but not including, August 8, 2010 (the “Purchase Date”), with respect to any and all Notes validly surrendered for purchase and not withdrawn. The Purchase Price is based solely on the requirements of the Indenture and the Notes and bears no relationship to the market price of the Notes or our Common Stock (as defined below). The Purchase Date is an Interest Payment Date under the terms of the Indenture. Accordingly, interest accrued to the Purchase Date will be paid to holders of record as of the Record Date, as defined in the Indenture, and we expect that there will be no accrued and unpaid interest due as part of the Purchase Price. (See Pages 6-7)

Do you have the financial resources to pay the Purchase Price?

We are currently facing significant liquidity challenges and, in light of our recent operating results, have been satisfying our short term liquidity needs through a combination of improving accounts receivables timing, borrowings under our credit facilities, receipt of an income tax refund and retained proceeds from asset sales and sale/leaseback financing transactions. At this time, we expect that our principal source of funds to pay the Purchase Price would come from the issuance of an additional $20.2 million of our 6% convertible senior notes (the “Convertible Notes”) pursuant to the terms of a note purchase agreement that we executed on February 11, 2010 with certain investors pursuant to which such investors agreed, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the note purchase agreement, to purchase from us up to $70.0 million in aggregate principal amount of the Convertible Notes in two separate closings. On February 23, 2010, we issued $49.8 million in aggregate principal amount of the Convertible Notes in the first closing, the proceeds of which were used to retire all of approximately $45 million in principal amount of our 8 1/2% notes that were otherwise due on April 15, 2010. We intend to use the proceeds from the second closing of the Convertible Notes to retire the Notes to the extent Holders elect to have such Notes repurchased pursuant to the Put Option. The obligation of the investors to purchase such additional Convertible Notes is subject to customary closing conditions as set forth in the note purchase agreement, including that all the representations and warranties made by us therein must continue to be true and correct in all material respects as of the second closing date. In the event that we do not receive the proceeds from the issuance of the additional $20.2 million of Convertible Notes to the investors, we would have to use existing cash or obtain other third party unsecured debt or equity financing to pay the Purchase Price, which would likely require the consent of a majority of our senior lenders. We cannot assure you that we will have sufficient cash or that our senior lenders will grant their consent or whether the terms of any other financing will be favorable to us or our stakeholders or that such financing can be obtained prior to the Purchase Date.

How can I determine the market value of the Notes?

There currently is a limited trading market for the Notes. To the extent that the Notes are traded, prices of the Notes may fluctuate widely depending on such factors as trading volume, the balance between buy and sell orders, prevailing interest rates, the market price of our Common Stock, our operating results and the market for similar securities. Holders are urged to obtain current market information for the Notes, to the extent available, and our Common Stock (as defined below) before making any decision with respect to the Put Option. Our common stock, $0.01 par value per share (“Common Stock”), into which the Notes may be convertible, is listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market (“NASDAQ”) under the symbol “YRCW.” On July 1, 2010, the closing sale price of our Common Stock on NASDAQ was $0.15 per share. (See Pages 7-8)

Is the Company making any recommendation about the Put Option?

None of the Company or its Board of Directors or employees is making any recommendation as to whether you should exercise or refrain from exercising the Put Option. You must make your own decision whether to exercise the Put Option and, if so, the amount of Notes for which to exercise the Put Option. (See Page 7)

When does the Put Option expire?

The Put Option expires at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on August 6, 2010 (the “Expiration Date”). We will not extend the period that Holders have to exercise the Put Option unless required to do so by applicable law (including, but not limited to, the federal securities laws) or as otherwise discussed herein. (See Page 5)

What are the conditions to the Company’s purchase of the Notes?

Subject to the Put Option Litigation, the purchase by the Company of validly surrendered Notes is not subject to any conditions other than that the Company’s purchase is not unlawful and satisfaction of the procedural requirements described in this Company Notice. Delivery of Notes by book-entry transfer electronically through the Automated Tender Offer Program (“ATOP”) of The Depository Trust Company (“DTC”) is a condition to the payment of the Purchase Price to the Holder of such Notes. (See Pages 5-6 and 9-11)

How do I surrender my Notes?

To surrender your Notes for purchase pursuant to the Put Option, you must surrender the Notes through the transmittal procedures of DTC on or before 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date.

Holders whose Notes are held by a broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee must contact such nominee if such Holder desires to surrender such Holder’s Notes and instruct such nominee to surrender the Notes on the Holder’s behalf through the transmittal procedures of DTC on or before 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date.

Holders who are DTC participants should surrender their Notes electronically through ATOP, subject to the terms and procedures of that system, on or before 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date.

You bear the risk of untimely surrender of your Notes. You must allow sufficient time for completion of the necessary DTC procedures before 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date. By surrendering your Notes through the transmittal procedures of DTC, you agree to be bound by the terms of the Put Option set forth in this Company Notice. (See Pages 9-11)

If I exercise the Put Option, when will I receive payment for my Notes?

We will accept for payment all validly surrendered Notes promptly upon expiration of the Put Option. We will, prior to 10:00 a.m., New York City time, on August 6, 2010, deposit with the Paying Agent the appropriate amount of cash required to pay the Purchase Price for the surrendered Notes, and the Paying Agent will promptly distribute the cash to DTC, the sole record Holder. DTC will thereafter distribute the cash to its participants in accordance with its procedures. (See Page 12)

Your delivery of the Notes by book-entry transfer electronically through DTC's ATOP system is a condition to your receipt of the Purchase Price for such Notes.

Can I withdraw previously surrendered Notes?

Yes. To withdraw previously surrendered Notes, you (or your broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee) must comply with the withdrawal procedures of DTC in sufficient time to allow DTC to withdraw your Notes prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date.

You bear the risk of untimely withdrawal of previously surrendered Notes. You must allow sufficient time for completion of the DTC procedures before 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date. (See Pages 11-12)

Do I need to do anything if I do not wish to exercise the Put Option?

No. If you do not surrender your Notes before the expiration of the Put Option, we will not purchase your Notes and such Notes will remain outstanding subject to their existing terms. (See Page 9)

If I choose to surrender my Notes for purchase, do I have to surrender all of my Notes?

No. You may surrender all of your Notes, a portion of your Notes or none of your Notes. If you wish to surrender a portion of your Notes for purchase, however, you must surrender your Notes in a principal amount of $1,000 or a multiple of $1,000. (See Page 7)

If I do not surrender my Notes for purchase, will I continue to be able to exercise my conversion rights?

Yes. If you do not surrender your Notes for purchase, your conversion rights will not be affected. You will continue to have the right to convert each $1,000 principal amount of the Notes into shares of our Common Stock, subject to the terms, conditions and adjustments specified in the Indenture and the Notes. (See Page 7)

If I am a U.S. resident for U.S. federal income tax purposes, will I have to pay taxes if I surrender my Notes for purchase pursuant to the Put Option?

The receipt of cash in exchange for Notes pursuant to the Put Option will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes and you may recognize income, gain or loss. We recommend that you consult with your tax advisor regarding the actual tax consequences to you. (See Pages 14-16)

Who is the Paying Agent?

Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas is serving as Paying Agent in connection with the Put Option. Its address and telephone and fax numbers are set forth on the front cover of this Company Notice.

Whom can I contact if I have questions about the Put Option?

Questions and requests for assistance in connection with the Put Option may be directed to the Paying Agent at the address and telephone and fax numbers set forth on the front cover of this Company Notice.

Why am I receiving this Company Notice at this time?

Pursuant to Section 3.8(c) of the Indenture, the Company is required to give written notice of any Purchase Date to the Holders not less than 30 Business Days prior to any Purchase Date. Accordingly, the Company was required to provide this Company Notice on or before June 25, 2010. On June 29, 2010, the Company received notice from the Trustee that it had failed to comply with Section 3.8(c) of the Indenture to provide notice of the Purchase Date to the Holders not less than 30 Business Days prior to the Purchase Date. The Company is providing this Company Notice at this time in order to satisfy its obligation under Section 3.8(c) of the Indenture. To the extent any Holder alleges that it was prejudiced in its ability to surrender its Notes prior to the Expiration Date as a result of the Company Notice not being provided prior to the 30 Business Day deadline, the Company will extend such Expiration Date with respect to that Holder.

Cash interest accrues on the Notes at the rate of 5% per annum and is payable semi-annually on August 8 and February 8 of each year (each, an “Interest Payment Date”) to the person in whose name a Note is registered at the close of business on the preceding July 15 or January 15 (each, a “Record Date”), as the case may be. The Notes mature on August 8, 2023. As of July 1, 2010, there was $20,070,000 in aggregate principal amount of the Notes outstanding.

2.1 The Company’s Obligation to Purchase the Notes. Pursuant to the terms of the Notes and the Indenture, dated as of December 31, 2004 (the “Original Indenture”), among the Company, certain subsidiary guarantors named therein and Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas, as trustee (the “Trustee”), as amended by a Supplemental Indenture, dated as of December 31, 2009 (the “Supplemental Indenture” and together with the Original Indenture, the “Indenture”), we are obligated to purchase all of the Notes validly surrendered and not withdrawn, at the Holder’s option (the “Put Option”), on August 8, 2010 (the “Purchase Date”). Under the Indenture, August 8, 2010 is considered a Legal Holiday as it is a Sunday and thus not a Business Day. As a result, the Purchase Date will be August 9, 2010 as the next succeeding day that is not a Legal Holiday in accordance with Section 12.08 of the Indenture.

The Put Option will expire at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on August 6, 2010 (the “Expiration Date”). We will not extend the period that Holders have to exercise the Put Option unless required to do so by applicable law (including, but not limited to, the federal securities laws) or as otherwise discussed herein.

Subject to the Put Option Litigation, the purchase by the Company of validly surrendered Notes is not subject to any conditions other than that the Company’s purchase is not unlawful and satisfaction of the procedural requirements described in this Company Notice.

If any Notes remain outstanding following the expiration of the Put Option, the Company will become obligated to purchase the Notes, at the option of the Holders, in whole or in part, on August 8, 2013 and August 8, 2018, in each case at a purchase price in cash equal to the principal amount thereof plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but not including, the purchase date thereof.

On January 28, 2010, the Company filed a petition for declaratory judgment against the Trustee seeking a declaratory judgment that the Indenture should be amended to eliminate the Put Option as a result of the consents it received in connection with its debt-for-equity exchange offers that were completed on December 31, 2009 (the “Put Option Litigation”). All of the statements made in this Company Notice relating to the Company’s obligation to purchase the Notes pursuant to the Put Option are expressly conditioned upon and subject to the outcome of the Put Option Litigation. In addition, nothing in this Company Notice shall be construed as an admission or acknowledgment on the part of the Company with respect to this obligation or in anyway be interpreted in any manner prejudicial to the Company in the pending Put Option Litigation. See “— Pending Litigation Regarding the Put Option.”

2.2 Pending Litigation Regarding the Put Option. On November 9, 2009, the Company commenced a series of exchange offers pursuant to which it sought to exchange up to 42 million shares of Common Stock and up to 5 million shares of the Company's new Class A convertible preferred stock for its then outstanding debt securities with an aggregate principal amount of approximately $536.8 million (the "Exchange Offers"), which included the Notes. In the Exchange Offers, which were consummated on December 31, 2009, the Company received, among others, an aggregate of $143,015,000 in principal amount, or 98.9%, of the Notes. All of the Notes tendered in the Exchange Offers were cancelled and retired upon consummation of the Exchange Offers.

As part of the Exchange Offers, the Company sought the consent from each of the tendering holders to amend each of the respective indentures governing its then outstanding debt securities, including the Original Indenture. In general, the proposed amendments sought to remove substantially all material affirmative and negative covenants and events of default other than those relating to the obligation to pay principal and interest on such debt securities and those relating to conversion rights. With respect to the Notes, the proposed amendments sought to eliminate the Put Option. The proposed amendments would be implemented through the execution of a supplemental indenture by the Company and the applicable trustee, including the Trustee with respect to the Notes. The Company believes that such proposed amendments to the Indenture could be adopted with the written consent of Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding.

During the course of the Exchange Offers, the Trustee informed the Company that it would not agree to enter into the supplemental indenture intended to implement the proposed amendments to the Indenture and the Notes made in the Exchange Offers if the Company sought to remove the Put Option and certain restrictions on mergers and transfers of assets. In this regard, the Company understands that the Trustee received a letter from a holder of the Notes challenging the Company's right to amend the Original Indenture to delete the Put Option and certain restrictions on mergers and transfers of assets without the consent of each Holder affected by such amendments. In response, the Company waived the satisfaction of various conditions to the Exchange Offers relating to the proposed amendments to be made to the Notes and, upon consummation of the Exchange Offers, entered into the Supplemental Indenture for the other proposed amendments to the Original Indenture. At that time, the Company reserved its rights against the Trustee to pursue all available remedies that would require the Trustee to give effect to the proposed amendments to eliminate the Put Option and certain restrictions on mergers and transfers of assets.

On January 28, 2010, the Company filed the Put Option Litigation in the district court of Johnson County, Kansas against the Trustee seeking declaratory judgment that the Indenture should be modified to eliminate the Put Option and certain restrictions on mergers and transfers of assets as originally contained in the proposed amendments. The action was subsequently removed by motion of the Trustee to the United States District Court for the District of Kansas (the "Court"). Both parties submitted motions of summary judgment. On July 1, 2010, the Court ordered that each motion for summary judgment be granted in part and denied in part. With respect to the Put Option, the Court ruled in favor of the Trustee with respect to its motion for summary judgment and concluded that the Company could not eliminate the Put Option without the consent of each Holder affected. The Company is currently evaluating its options and may elect to appeal this ruling. If the Company does decide to appeal the ruling, it will likely seek an order from the Court permitting the Company to delay the Purchase Date pending the appeal by the Company. If the Court were to grant such an order and the Company was successful in its appeal, the Company would seek to execute a supplemental indenture with the Trustee to eliminate the Put Option and, as a result, would not purchase any of the surrendered Notes on the Purchase Date.

All of the statements made in this Company Notice relating to the Company's obligation to purchase the Notes pursuant to the Put Option are expressly conditioned upon and subject to the outcome of the Put Option Litigation. In addition, nothing in this Company Notice shall be construed as an admission or acknowledgment on the part of the Company with respect to this obligation or in anyway be interpreted in any manner prejudicial to the Company in the pending Put Option Litigation.

2.3 Purchase Price. Pursuant to terms of the Indenture and the Notes, the purchase price to be paid by the Company for the Notes on the Purchase Date is equal to $1,000 per $1,000 principal amount of the Notes, plus any accrued and unpaid interest to, but not including, the Purchase Date (the "Purchase Price"). The Purchase Date is an Interest Payment Date under the terms of the Indenture. Accordingly, interest accrued to the Purchase Date will be paid to record holders as of the Record Date, and we expect that there will be no accrued and unpaid interest due as part of the Purchase Price. We have determined that the Purchase Price will be paid in cash with respect to any and all Notes validly surrendered for purchase (and not thereafter withdrawn) prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date. Notes surrendered for purchase will be accepted only in principal amounts equal to $1,000 or a multiple of $1,000. Delivery of the Notes by book-entry transfer to the account maintained by the Paying Agent with The Depository Trust Company (“DTC”) is a condition to the payment of the Purchase Price to the Holder of such Notes.

The Purchase Price is based solely on the requirements of the Indenture and the Notes and does not necessarily bear any relationship to the market price of the Notes or our Common Stock. Thus, the Purchase Price may be significantly higher or lower than the current market price of the Notes. Holders of Notes are urged to obtain the best available information as to potential current market prices of the Notes, to the extent available, and our Common Stock before making a decision whether to surrender their Notes for purchase.

None of the Company or our Board of Directors or employees is making any recommendation to Holders as to whether to exercise or refrain from exercising the Put Option. Each Holder must make his or her own decision whether to exercise the Put Option and, if so, the principal amount of Notes for which to exercise the Put Option based on such Holder’s assessment of the current market value of the Notes and our Common Stock and other relevant factors.

We recommend that you also consult with your tax and financial advisors with respect to the tax consequences of exercising the Put Option, including the applicability and effect of any U.S. federal, state and local law and any non-U.S. tax consequences in light of your own particular circumstances.

2.4 Conversion Rights of the Notes. The Notes are convertible into cash and, if applicable, shares of our Common Stock, in accordance with and subject to the terms of the Indenture and the Notes. The initial conversion price of the Notes is $39.24 per share of Common Stock, subject to adjustment under certain circumstances as described in the Indenture. The Paying Agent is currently acting as Conversion Agent for the Notes. The Conversion Agent can be contacted at the address and telephone and fax numbers set forth on the front cover of this Company Notice.

Holders who do not surrender their Notes for purchase pursuant to the Put Option, or who validly withdraw a surrender of their Notes in compliance with the withdrawal procedures described in Section 4 of this Company Notice, will retain the right to convert their Notes into Common Stock subject to the terms, conditions and adjustments specified in the Indenture and the Notes. If a Holder validly surrenders his or her Notes for purchase pursuant to the Put Option and the Holder subsequently wishes to convert such Notes pursuant to the Indenture, the Holder may not convert his or her surrendered Notes unless such Holder validly withdraws the Notes in compliance with the procedures described in Section 4 of this Company Notice.

2.5 Market for the Notes and our Common Stock. There currently is a limited trading market for the Notes. To the extent that the Notes are traded, prices of the Notes may fluctuate widely depending on such factors as trading volume, the balance between buy and sell orders, prevailing interest rates, the market price of our Common Stock, our operating results and the market for similar securities. A debt security with a smaller outstanding principal amount available for trading (a smaller “float”) may command a lower price and trade with greater volatility than would a comparable debt security with a larger float. Consequently, our purchase of the Notes, if any, pursuant to the Put Option may reduce the float and may negatively affect the liquidity, market value and price volatility of the Notes that remain outstanding following the Put Option.

Our Common Stock, into which the Notes are convertible, is listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market (“NASDAQ”) under the symbol “YRCW.” The following table shows, for the periods indicated, the high and low sales prices per share of our Common Stock as reported by NASDAQ:

	High	Low
2010:

On July 1, 2010, the closing sale price of our Common Stock, as reported by NASDAQ, was $0.15 per share. As of June 30, 2010, there were 1,119,674,868 shares of Common Stock outstanding.

The Holders of Notes are not entitled to dividends. If Common Stock is received by Holders in a conversion of the Notes, such Holders will be entitled to dividends, if any, paid to holders of Common Stock. The Company historically has not paid dividends on its Common Stock.

We urge you to obtain current market information for the Notes, to the extent available, and our Common Stock before making any decision whether to exercise or refrain from exercising the Put Option.

2.6 Optional Redemption. Beginning on August 13, 2010, the Notes are redeemable for cash at our option at any time, in whole or in part, at a redemption price equal to the principal amount of Notes to be redeemed plus any accrued and unpaid interest to, but not including, the date fixed for redemption, as provided for in the Indenture and the Notes. However, effective on the date of this Company Notice, we and our affiliates, including our executive officers and directors, are prohibited under applicable United States federal securities laws from purchasing or redeeming Notes (or the right to purchase or redeem Notes) other than through the Put Option until at least the tenth business day after the Purchase Date. (See Page 10).

2.7 Holder’s Right to Require Purchase Upon a Repurchase Change in Control. Each Holder may require us to purchase all or any part of his or her Notes if there is a Repurchase Change in Control (as defined in the Indenture) at a purchase price in cash equal to the principal amount of Notes to be redeemed plus any accrued and unpaid interest to, but not including, the purchase date.

2.8 Ranking. The Notes are our unsecured senior obligations and rank equal in right of payment with all our other existing and future unsecured indebtedness and senior to any of our subordinated indebtedness. The Notes are guaranteed by a majority of our domestic operating subsidiaries. The Notes are effectively subordinated to all of our and our subsidiaries’ existing and future secured indebtedness to the extent of the security for such secured debt, and are effectively subordinated to all liabilities of our non-guarantor subsidiaries.

2.9 Notice Period. Pursuant to Section 3.8(c) of the Indenture, the Company is required to give written notice of any Purchase Date to the Holders not less than 30 Business Days prior to any Purchase Date. Accordingly, the Company was required to provide this Company Notice on or before June 25, 2010. On June 29, 2010, the Company received notice from the Trustee that it had failed to comply with Section 3.8(c) of the Indenture to provide notice of the Purchase Date to the Holders not less than 30 Business Days prior to the Purchase Date. The Company is providing this Company Notice at this time in order to satisfy its obligation under Section 3.8(c) of the Indenture. To the extent any Holder alleges that it was prejudiced in its ability to surrender its Notes prior to the Expiration Date as a result of the Company Notice not being provided prior to the 30 Business Day deadline, the Company will extend such Expiration Date with respect to that Holder.

3. Procedures to Be Followed by Holders Electing to Surrender Notes for Purchase. Holders will not be entitled to receive the Purchase Price for their Notes unless they validly surrender (and do not thereafter withdraw) the Notes on or before 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date. Only registered Holders are authorized to surrender their Notes for purchase. Holders may surrender some or all of their Notes; however, any Notes surrendered must be in a principal amount of $1,000 or a multiple of $1,000.

If Holders do not validly surrender their Notes on or before 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date or if they withdraw validly surrendered Notes before 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date, their Notes will not be purchased and will remain outstanding subject to the existing terms of the Notes and the Indenture.

You will not be required to pay any commission to us, DTC or the Paying Agent in connection with your Put Option. However, there may be commissions you need to pay your broker in connection with the surrender of the Notes.

3.1 Method of Delivery. The Trustee has informed the Company that, as of the date of this Company Notice, all custodians and beneficial holders of the Notes hold the Notes through DTC accounts and that there are no certificated Notes in non-global form. Accordingly, all Notes surrendered for purchase hereunder must be delivered through DTC's Automated Tender Offer Program ("ATOP"), subject to the terms and conditions of that system.

This Company Notice constitutes the Company's notice of repurchase right described in the Indenture and delivery of the Notes via ATOP will satisfy the Holders' requirement for physical delivery of a Repurchase Notice as defined and described in the Indenture. Delivery of Notes, including delivery and acceptance through ATOP, is at the election and risk of the person surrendering such Notes.

3.2 Agreement to be Bound by the Terms of the Put Option. By surrendering Notes through the transmittal procedures of DTC, a Holder acknowledges and agrees as follows:

- such Notes shall be purchased as of the Purchase Date pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in this Company Notice;
- such Holder agrees to all of the terms of this Company Notice;
- such Holder has received this Company Notice and acknowledges that this Company Notice provides the notices required pursuant to the Indenture;
- upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Company Notice, the Indenture and the Notes, and effective upon receipt of the Purchase Price for the Notes that such Holder surrenders for repurchase, such Holder (i) irrevocably sells, assigns and transfers to the Company all right, title and interest in and to all the Notes surrendered, (ii) waives any and all rights with respect to the Notes (including, without limitation, any existing or past defaults and their consequences), (iii) releases and discharges the Company and its directors, officers, employees and affiliates from any and all claims such Holder may have now, or may have in the future arising out of, or related to, the Notes that such Holder surrenders for repurchase, including, without limitation, any claims that such Holder is entitled to receive additional principal or interest payments with respect to the Notes or to participate in any conversion, redemption or defeasance of the Notes that such Holder surrenders for repurchase, and (iv) irrevocably constitutes and appoints the Paying Agent as the true and lawful agent and attorney-in-fact of such Holder with respect to any such surrendered Notes, with full power of substitution and resubstitution (such power of attorney being deemed to be an irrevocable power coupled with an interest) to (a) transfer ownership of such Notes on the account books maintained by DTC, together with all necessary evidences of transfer and authenticity, to the Company, (b) present such Notes for transfer on the relevant security register and (c) receive all benefits or otherwise exercise all rights of beneficial ownership of such Notes (except that the Paying Agent will have no rights to, or control over, funds from the Company, except as agent for the Company, for the Purchase Price of any surrendered Notes that are purchased by the Company), all in accordance with the terms set forth in this Company Notice;

- such Holder represents and warrants that such Holder (i) owns the Notes surrendered and is entitled to surrender such Notes and (ii) has full power and authority to surrender, sell, assign and transfer the Notes surrendered hereby and that, when such Notes are accepted for purchase and payment by the Company, the Company will acquire good title thereto, free and clear of all liens, restrictions, charges and encumbrances of any kind and not subject to any adverse claim or right;
- such Holder agrees, upon request from the Company, to execute and deliver any additional documents deemed by the Paying Agent or the Company to be necessary or desirable to complete the sale, assignment and transfer of the Notes surrendered;
- such Holder understands that all Notes properly surrendered for purchase (and not thereafter withdrawn) prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date will be purchased at the Purchase Price, in cash, pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Indenture, the Notes and the other Option Documents;
- payment for Notes purchased pursuant to the Company Notice will be made by deposit of the Purchase Price for such Notes with the Paying Agent, which will act as agent for surrendering Holders for the purpose of receiving payments from the Company and transmitting such payments to such Holders;
- surrenders of Notes may be withdrawn by written notice of withdrawal delivered pursuant to the procedures set forth in this Company Notice at any time prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date;
- all authority conferred or agreed to be conferred pursuant to the terms of the Put Option hereby shall survive the death or incapacity of the Holder and every obligation of the Holder and shall be binding upon the Holder's heirs, personal representatives, executors, administrators, successors, assigns, trustees in bankruptcy and other legal representatives;
- the delivery and surrender of the Notes is not effective, and the risk of loss of the Notes does not pass to the Paying Agent, until receipt by the Paying Agent of any and all evidences of authority and any other required documents in form satisfactory to the Company; and
- all questions as to the validity, form, eligibility (including time of receipt) and acceptance for payment of any surrender of Notes pursuant to the procedures described in this Company Notice and the form and validity (including time of receipt of notices of withdrawal) of all documents will be determined by the Company, in its sole discretion, which determination shall be final and binding on all parties.

3.3 Delivery of Notes.

Notes Held Through a Custodian. A Holder whose Notes are held by a broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee must contact such nominee if such Holder desires to surrender his or her Notes and instruct such nominee to surrender the Notes for purchase on the Holder's behalf through the transmittal procedures of DTC as set forth below in "Notes in Global Form" on or prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date.

Notes in Global Form. A Holder who is a DTC participant may elect to surrender to the Company his or her beneficial interest in the Notes by:

- delivering to the Paying Agent's account at DTC through DTC's book-entry system his or her beneficial interest in the Notes on or prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date; and
- electronically transmitting his or her acceptance through DTC's ATOP system, subject to the terms and procedures of that system, on or prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date. Upon receipt of such Holder's acceptance through ATOP, DTC will edit and verify the acceptance and send an agent's message to the Paying Agent for its acceptance. The term "agent's message" means a message transmitted by DTC to, and received by, the Paying Agent, which states that DTC has received an express acknowledgment from the participant in DTC described in that agent's message, stating the principal amount of Notes that have been surrendered by such participant under the Put Option and that such participant has received and agrees to be bound by the terms of the Put Option, including those set forth in Section 3.2 of this Company Notice.

In surrendering through ATOP, the electronic instructions sent to DTC by the Holder (or by a broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee on the Holder's behalf), and transmitted by DTC to the Paying Agent, will acknowledge, on behalf of DTC and the Holder, receipt by the Holder of, and agreement to be bound by, the terms of the Put Option, including those set forth in Section 3.2 of this Company Notice.

You bear the risk of untimely surrender of your Notes. You must allow sufficient time for completion of the necessary DTC procedures before 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date.

Unless we default in making payment of the Purchase Price, interest on Notes validly surrendered for purchase will cease to accrue on and after the Purchase Date, whether or not such Notes are delivered to the Paying Agent, and immediately after the Purchase Date all rights (other than the right to receive the Purchase Price upon delivery of the Notes) of the Holder of such Notes will terminate.

4. Right of Withdrawal. Notes surrendered for purchase may be withdrawn at any time if withdrawn in sufficient time to allow DTC to withdraw those Notes prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date. In order to withdraw Notes, Holders (or such Holders' broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee) must comply with the withdrawal procedures of DTC. This means a Holder must deliver, or cause to be delivered, a valid withdrawal request through the ATOP system from the tendering DTC participant in sufficient time to allow DTC to withdraw those Notes before 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date. The withdrawal notice must:

- specify the DTC Voluntary Offer Instruction Number, the name of the participant for whose account such Notes were tendered and such participant's account number at DTC to be credited with the withdrawn Notes;
- contain a description of the Notes to be withdrawn (including the principal amount to be withdrawn); and
- be submitted through the DTC ATOP system by such participant under the same name as the participant's name is listed in the original tender, or be accompanied by evidence satisfactory to the Company that the person withdrawing the tender has succeeded to the beneficial ownership of the Notes.

We will determine all questions as to the validity, form and eligibility, including time of receipt, of notices of withdrawal.

You bear the risk of untimely withdrawal of your Notes. You must allow sufficient time for completion of the necessary DTC procedures before 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date.

Holders may withdraw any Notes previously delivered to the Paying Agent and not yet accepted for payment after the expiration of 40 business days from the date of this Company Notice.

5. Payment for Surrendered Notes. We will, prior to 10:00 a.m., New York City time, on the Business Day prior to the Purchase Date, deposit with the Paying Agent the appropriate amount of cash required to pay the Purchase Price for the surrendered Notes, and the Paying Agent will promptly thereafter cause the cash to be distributed to each record Holder that has validly delivered its Notes (and not validly withdrawn such delivery) prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date. Your delivery of the Notes by book-entry transfer electronically through DTC's ATOP system is a condition to your receipt of the Purchase Price for such Notes.

The total amount of funds required by us to purchase all of the Notes is $20,700,000 (assuming that all of the Notes are validly surrendered for purchase and accepted for payment). We are currently facing significant liquidity challenges and, in light of our recent operating results, have been satisfying our short term liquidity needs through a combination of improving accounts receivables timing, borrowings under our credit facilities, receipt of an income tax refund and retained proceeds from asset sales and sale/leaseback financing transactions. At this time, we expect that our principal source of funds to pay the Purchase Price would come from the issuance of an additional $20.2 million of our 6% convertible senior notes (the "Convertible Notes") pursuant to the terms of a note purchase agreement that we executed on February 11, 2010 with certain investors pursuant to which such investors agreed, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the note purchase agreement, to purchase from us up to $70.0 million in aggregate principal amount of the Convertible Notes in two separate closings. On February 23, 2010, we issued $49.8 million in aggregate principal amount of the Convertible Notes in the first closing, the proceeds of which were used to retire all of approximately $45 million in principal amount of our 8 1/2% notes that were otherwise due on April 15, 2010. We intend to use the proceeds from the second closing of the Convertible Notes to retire the Notes to the extent Holders elect to have such Notes repurchased pursuant to the Put Option. The obligation of the investors to purchase such additional Convertible Notes is subject to customary closing conditions as set forth in the note purchase agreement, including that all the representations and warranties made by us therein must continue to be true and correct in all material respects as of the second closing date. In the event that we do not receive the proceeds from the issuance of the additional $20.2 million of Convertible Notes to the investors, we would have to use existing cash or obtain other third party unsecured debt or equity financing to pay the Purchase Price, which would likely require the consent of a majority of our senior lenders. We cannot assure you that we will have sufficient cash or that our senior lenders will grant their consent or whether the terms of any other financing will be favorable to us or our stakeholders or that such financing can be obtained prior to the Purchase Date.

6. Notes Acquired. Any Notes purchased by us pursuant to the Put Option will be canceled by the Trustee pursuant to the terms of the Indenture.

7. Plans or Proposals of the Company. As previously mentioned, the Company is currently facing significant liquidity challenges driven in part by the need to fund working capital for recent business growth. The Company seeking to address its short-term liquidity needs through a combination of one or more of the following actions:

- implementing further cost actions and efficiency improvements;
- seeking additional and return business from customers;
- engaging in discussions with the company's lending group under its credit agreement;
- pursuing the sale of nonstrategic assets or business lines;
- actively managing receipts and disbursements, including amounts and timing, focusing on reducing day's sales outstanding and managing day's payables outstanding;
- pursuing the Put Option Litigation, which if successful and the Company otherwise satisfies the closing conditions under a note purchase agreement with respect to the Convertible Notes, results in it being able to utilize the remaining $20.2 million of proceeds held in an escrow for general corporate purposes; and

- considering the sale of additional equity or pursuing other capital market transactions.

In that regard, the Company announced on June 25, 2010 that it had entered into a definitive agreement to sell a portion of its YRC Logistics business to Austin Ventures, a strategic private equity investor. The agreement between the Company and Austin Ventures is for an acquisition price of $37 million, and incremental value will be realized by both parties through a comprehensive commercial services agreement. The transition to new ownership is expected to be complete within the next 30-45 days.

Except as described above in these materials or in our filings with the SEC, we currently have no plans which would be material to a Holder's decision to exercise the Put Option, which relate to or which would result in:

- any extraordinary transaction, such as a merger, reorganization or liquidation, involving us or any of our subsidiaries;
- any purchase, sale or transfer of a material amount of our assets or those of any of our subsidiaries;
- any material change in our present dividend rate or policy, indebtedness or capitalization;
- any change in our present board of directors or management, including, but not limited to, any plans or proposals to change the number or the term of directors or to fill any existing vacancies on our board of directors;
- any other material change in our corporate structure or business;
- any class of our equity securities to be delisted from a national securities exchange or cease to be authorized to be quoted in an automated quotation system operated by a national securities association;
- any class of our equity securities becoming eligible for termination of registration under Section 12(g)(4) of the Exchange Act;
- the suspension of our obligation to file reports under Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act;
- the acquisition by any person of additional securities of ours, or the disposition of our securities; or
- any changes in our charter, bylaws or other governing instruments, or other actions that could impede the acquisition of control of us.

8. Interests of Directors, Executive Officers and Affiliates of the Company in the Notes. Neither we nor, to our knowledge after making reasonable inquiry, any of our executive officers or directors or any "associate" or subsidiary of any such person, has any beneficial interest in the Notes, or has engaged in any transaction in the Notes during the 60 days preceding the date of this Company Notice. A list of our executive officers and directors is attached to this Company Notice as Schedule A. The term "associate" is used as defined in Rule 12b-2 under the Exchange Act.

Certain of our directors and executive officers are participants in ordinary course equity compensation plans and arrangements involving our Common Stock, as disclosed by us prior to the date hereof. Except as described in the previous sentence, neither we nor, to our knowledge after making reasonable inquiry, any of our executive officers or directors, is a party to any contract, arrangement, understanding or agreement with any other person relating, directly or indirectly, to the Put Option or with respect to any of our securities, including, but not limited to, any contract, arrangement, understanding or agreement concerning the transfer or the voting of our securities, joint ventures, loan or option arrangements, puts or calls, guarantees of loans, guarantees against loss or the giving or withholding of proxies, consents or authorizations.

9. Legal Matters; Regulatory Approvals. We are not aware of any license or regulatory permit that is material to our business that might be adversely affected by the Put Option, or of any approval or other action by any government or regulatory authority or agency that is required for the acquisition of the Notes as described in this Company Notice. Should any approval or other action be required, we presently intend to seek the approval or take the action. However, we cannot assure you that we would be able to obtain any required approval or take any other required action.

The pending Put Option Litigation may affect our obligation to purchase the Notes surrendered in the Put Option. See “Information Concerning the Notes — Pending Litigation Regarding the Put Option.”

10. Purchases of Notes by the Company and Its Affiliates. The Company made no purchases of the Notes during the 60 days preceding the date of this Company Notice.

Effective on the date of this Company Notice, we and our affiliates, including our executive officers and directors, are prohibited under applicable United States federal securities laws from purchasing Notes (or the right to purchase Notes) other than through the Put Option until at least the tenth business day after the Purchase Date. Following such time, if any Notes remain outstanding, we may exercise our right to redeem such Notes, in whole or in part, and we and our affiliates may purchase Notes in the open market, in private transactions, through a subsequent tender offer, or otherwise, any of which may be consummated at purchase prices higher or lower than the Purchase Price, or which may be paid in cash or other consideration. Any decision to purchase Notes after the Purchase Date, if any, will depend upon many factors, including the market price of the Notes, the amount of Notes delivered for purchase pursuant to the Put Option, the market price of our Common Stock, our business and financial position, and general economic and market conditions. Any such purchase may be on the same terms or on terms more or less favorable to the Holders of the Notes than the terms of the Put Option as described in this Company Notice.

11. Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences

TO ENSURE COMPLIANCE WITH IRS CIRCULAR 230, HOLDERS ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED THAT: (A) ANY DISCUSSION OF FEDERAL TAX ISSUES IN THIS NOTICE IS NOT INTENDED OR WRITTEN TO BE RELIED UPON, AND CANNOT BE RELIED UPON, BY HOLDERS OF NOTES FOR THE PURPOSE OF AVOIDING PENALTIES THAT MAY BE IMPOSED ON SUCH HOLDERS UNDER THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE OF 1986, AS AMENDED (THE “CODE”); (B) SUCH DISCUSSION IS WRITTEN IN CONNECTION WITH THE PROMOTION OR MARKETING OF THE TRANSACTIONS OR MATTERS ADDRESSED HEREIN; AND (C) HOLDERS OF NOTES SHOULD SEEK ADVICE BASED ON THEIR PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES FROM AN INDEPENDENT TAX ADVISOR.

The following is a discussion of certain U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to U.S. Holders or Non-U.S. Holders (each as defined below) who surrender Notes for purchase pursuant to the Put Option. For this purpose, a “holder” means a beneficial owner of a Note; a “U.S. Holder” means a holder that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, is (i) a citizen or resident alien individual of the United States, (ii) a corporation (or other entity taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state thereof or the District of Columbia, (iii) an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source, or (iv) a trust if it either (x) is subject to the primary supervision of a court within the United States and one or more United States persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (y) has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury regulations to be treated as a United States person; and a “Non-U.S. Holder” means a holder that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, is an individual, corporation, estate or trust and, in each case, is not a U.S. Holder.

If an entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes holds a Note, the tax treatment of such partnership and each partner thereof will generally depend upon the status and activities of the partnership and the partner. Any such entity or partner thereof should consult its tax advisor regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences applicable to it and its partners of surrendering a Note for purchase pursuant to the Put Option.

This discussion deals only with Notes held as capital assets (generally, property held for investment). This discussion does not address all of the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to a holder in light of its own particular circumstances, nor does it deal with special situations, such as:

- holders who are subject to special tax treatment, such as dealers in securities or currencies, banks, insurance companies, retirement plans, tax-exempt entities, regulated investment companies, real estate investment trusts, U.S. Holders whose “functional currency” is not the U.S. dollar, traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting, certain former citizens or residents of the United States, foreign governmental entities, international organizations, controlled foreign corporations and passive foreign investment companies;
- Notes held as part of a hedging, integrated, constructive sale or conversion transaction or a straddle;
- any alternative minimum tax consequences; or
- any state, local or non-U.S. tax consequences.

This discussion is based upon the provisions of the Code, Treasury regulations, rulings, other administrative guidance and judicial decisions, all as of the date hereof. Those authorities may be changed, perhaps retroactively, so as to result in U.S. federal income tax consequences different from those discussed below.

WE RECOMMEND TO EACH HOLDER THAT INTENDS TO SURRENDER ANY NOTE FOR PURCHASE PURSUANT TO THE PUT OPTION TO CONSULT ITS OWN TAX ADVISOR AS TO THE U.S. FEDERAL, STATE AND LOCAL, AND ANY NON-U.S. TAX CONSEQUENCES TO IT IN LIGHT OF ITS OWN PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES.

11.1 U.S. Holders

Surrender of Notes for Purchase. The surrender of any Note by a U.S. Holder for purchase pursuant to the Put Option generally will be treated as a taxable sale of the Note for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Such U.S. Holder generally will recognize gain or loss upon such sale equal to the difference between (i) the cash received by such U.S. Holder in consideration for the surrender of the Note and (ii) such U.S. Holder’s adjusted tax basis in the Note at the time of sale. Because the Notes are treated as “contingent payment debt instruments” for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a U.S. Holder’s adjusted tax basis in a Note generally will be equal to the cost of the Note to such U.S. Holder, increased by any interest income previously accrued by the U.S. Holder and decreased by the amount of any projected payments previously made on the Note to the U.S. Holder. Under the special rules applicable to contingent payment debt instruments, U.S. Holder generally will treat any gain as interest income and any loss as ordinary loss to the extent of the excess of previous interest inclusions over the total negative adjustments previously taken into account as ordinary loss, and the balance as capital loss. A U.S. Holder that acquired a Note at premium should consult his or her tax advisor regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of surrendering the Note for purchase pursuant to the Put Option.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding. In general, information reporting requirements will apply to the amount paid to a U.S. Holder in consideration for the surrender of a Note for purchase pursuant to the Put Option, unless such U.S. Holder is an exempt recipient (such as a corporation). A U.S. Holder may also be subject to backup withholding on such payment unless the U.S. Holder (i) provides a correct U.S. taxpayer identification number, certifies as to no loss of exemption from backup withholding and otherwise complies with the applicable requirements or (ii) is a corporation or other exempt recipient and, if required, provides a certification to such effect. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be allowed as a refund or a credit against a U.S. Holder’s U.S. federal income tax liability provided the required information is furnished on a timely basis to the Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”).

11.2 Non-U.S. Holders

Surrender of Notes for Purchase. Subject to the discussion of backup withholding below, a Non-U.S. Holder generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income or withholding tax on gain recognized on the surrender of a Note for purchase pursuant to the Put Option unless:

- such Non-U.S. Holder is an individual who is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of the tender and certain other conditions are met;
- such gain is effectively connected with the conduct by the Non-U.S. Holder of a trade or business in the United States, in which case such Non-U.S. Holder generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis in substantially the same manner as a U.S. Holder (except as provided by an applicable income tax treaty) and, if it is a corporation, may also be subject to a branch profits tax at the rate of 30% (or a lower rate if provided by an applicable income tax treaty); or
- YRC is or has been a “United States real property holding corporation” (“USRPHC”) for U.S. federal income tax purposes during the Non-U.S. Holder’s holding period for the Notes and certain other conditions are met.

Generally, a corporation is a USRPHC if the fair market value of its United States real property interests equals or exceeds 50% of the sum of the fair market value of its worldwide real property interests and its other assets used or held for use in a trade or business (all as determined for U.S. federal income tax purposes). YRC does not believe that it has been a USRPHC for any year during which the Notes have been outstanding, nor does it presently anticipate that it will be a USRPHC for the current year.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding. Payments to a Non-U.S. Holder in consideration for the surrender of the Notes for purchase pursuant to the Put Option made through a U.S. office of a broker generally will be subject to information reporting and backup withholding unless the payee certifies under penalties of perjury that it is not a U.S. person or otherwise establishes an exemption. Any such payments made through a non-U.S. office of a U.S. broker or of a non-U.S. broker with certain specified U.S. connections generally will be subject to information reporting, but not backup withholding, unless the broker has evidence in its records that the payee is not a U.S. person and has no knowledge or reason to know to the contrary.

Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be allowed as a refund or a credit against the Non-U.S. Holder’s U.S. federal income tax liability, if any, provided the required information is furnished on a timely basis to the IRS.
